

OUR COMMUNITY. OUR MOUNTAINS. OUR FUTURE.

EpicPromise partners with more than 250 nonprofits each year with more than $7M in financial support and 20,000 hours of volunteer time. Below is a list of South Lake Tahoe area nonprofit organizations currently looking for volunteers.

Please contact epicpromise@vailresorts.com or 303.404.1106 with questions or concerns

Volunteer Opportunity of the Month:

NUZZLES & CO. needs volunteers in a variety of ways, whether it is daily to perform tasks at the Rescue Ranch and the Adoption Center, once a month, or event just once helping out at an event. The furry friends at Nuzzles & CO. thank you for considering volunteering! Find out more HERE.

Canines With a Cause has several life-saving programs including shelter dog rescue and placement, free dog training for qualified veterans, the "CWAC Comfort Crew" and ongoing medical and food programs for veterans in need. There are many ways to get involved with our program; you can walk dogs, participate in training classes or help out at adoption and fundraising events. Visit canineswithacause.org.

The Utah Avalanche Center is a collaborative effort between the Forest Service, Utah Avalanche Center and the Friends of the Utah Avalanche Center. Efforts include giving winter backcountry travelers the tools they need to stay alive and have fun in avalanche terrain. Click here for more information.

Habitat for Humanity of Summit & Wasatch Counties seeks to bring people together to build homes, communities and hope. Habitat engages volunteers to help build and repair homes, support fundraising events, participate in parades and community events and more. Click here for details on how to get involved.

The Kimball Art Center is a non-profit center for the arts, committed to engaging individuals of all ages in diverse and inspiring experiences through education, exhibitions and events. Assist the Kimball Art Center staff through a variety of different tasks including office work, glazing, cleaning, organizing, event set-up and takedown and delivering print materials around town. Visit www.kimballartcenter.org.

The Mountain Trails Foundation builds and improves Park City area trails while working with local governments, private landowners, developers and the general public in an effort to advocate for a non-motorized, outdoor recreational amenity. Visit www.mountaintrails.org.

The National Ability Center empowers individuals of all abilities by building self-esteem, confidence and lifetime skills through sport, recreation and educational programs. Volunteering at the National Ability Center means you will be directly contributing to their mission of providing life-changing activities to people of all abilities.

Visit www.discovernac.org.

Recycle Utah is committed to reducing waste and preventing ground water pollution by offering a variety of collection programs, education programs, workshops, and events. As long as the health of our local and global environment is a concern, Recycle Utah will strive to offer community-based resources and solutions. Visit www.recycleutah.org to get involved.

The People's Health Clinic is building a healthier community by providing medical care and support to Summit and Wasatch Counties' uninsured. There are numerous ways to get involved. Click here to find out more.

The Summit Land Conservancy works in partnership with local landowners to permanently protect the remaining agricultural lands, view sheds, animal habitats, waterways and rangelands in Summit County, Utah. From hunting for wild hops and identifying flora and fauna on the easements to helping out around the office and staffing outreach and fundraising events, your time helps protect local open spaces. Visit their website, www.wesaveland.org, for more info.

Swaner is a refuge for an abundance of wildlife while offering engaging environmental science educational programs for all ages. Over 10 miles of trails offer recreational opportunities for mountain bikers, hikers, birdwatchers, snowshoers and photographers. As part of Utah State University, this combination is an educational powerhouse. Several volunteer opportunities are available; click here to learn more.

4-H has a long history of helping youth "learn by doing" and is the nation's largest positive youth development and youth mentoring organization, empowering six million young people in the U.S. Visit utah4h.org to find out more.

The Youth Sports Alliance seeks to involve youth through its outreach programs to schools in Summit and Wasatch County and increase sports participation by increasing awareness, generating interest and excitement while facilitating access to over a dozen different winter sports programs. Click here to find out about volunteer opportunities.

